1 J. Spencer

2 McGraw-Hill in December of 2000, you said you were
3 reporting directly to Mr. Harper; is that correct?

4 A. That is correct.

5 Q. What were your duties and
6 responsibilities?

7 A. My overall duties and responsibilities
8 while reporting to Mr. Harper was to partner with 9 the department heads, to determine in what way
10 they needed HR assistance, develop competency
11 based questions, entry level employees, interns,
12 managers and directors.

13 Oversee, manage and coordinate all
14 aspects of the intern program.

15 Develop a diversity slate.

16 Complete the competency based
17 questionnaire.

18 Handle all -- handle and resolve all
19 employee relations issues to make sure that no
20 issue led to any litigation.

21 Conduct training on an as-needed
22 basis.

23 Develop and manage the sexual
24 harassment training.

25 Partner or meet with the business

1 J. Spencer

2 department heads by sitting in on their meetings
3 to understand their role and their
4 responsibilities.

5 Recruit for the administrative
6 assistant position for the president of Business
7 Week.

8 Handle all employee relations issues
9 with the health care group.

10 Disseminate information on an
11 as-needed basis to all businesses that were 12 supported.

13 Meet with employees to address
14 one-on-one benefit issues, concerns.

15 Review the numbers of individuals in
16 each of the departments based upon data sent by
17 the group that works on affirmative action.

18 Initiate and develop a leadership
19 development program for department heads.

20 Attend department head meetings headed
21 up by the president to provide updates on HR's
22 accomplishments for the business.

23 Communicate results of surveys as they
24 were conducted.

25 That's as much as I can remember, that

1 J. Spencer

2 I can recall to present.

3 Q. When you worked under Mr. Harper's
4 supervision, did you do each of the things that
5 you just outlined for us?

6 A. Yes, I did.

7 Q. Were you familiar with the personnel
8 policies of McGraw-Hill?

9 A. When I came on board he explained to 10 me where the policies were and asked me to become 11 familiar with the policies.

12 Q. And did you do that?

13 A. Yes, over a period of time.

14 Q. In order to be effective in a human
15 resource or a senior human resource position, it
16 is necessary to be familiar with the personnel
17 policies of the company, correct?

18 A. It's correct.

19 Q. Now, when -- you said that you would
20 handle and resolve all employee relations issues
21 to make sure no issue led to any litigation.

22 Did you interface with in-house legal
23 counsel?

24 A. When needed.

25 Q. You interfaced or communicated with

1 J. Spencer

2 with regard to your color or sexuality?

3 A. Mr. Harper treated me differently in
4 terms of some assignments that he would give me,
5 one of which I've already mentioned.

6 Q. Are you claiming that he treated you
7 differently -- strike that.

8 But you're not claiming that he
9 treated you differently because of your sex or 10 your color, correct?

11 A. No, I'm not claiming that with regard
12 to Mr. Bill Harper.

13 Q. Now, if you can look at Exhibit 5,
14 please, your answers to interrogatories, and I'd 15 like to direct your attention specifically to 16 interrogatory No. 12, and your answer to that 17 interrogatory, interrogatory No. 12 asks you to 18 identify each and every individual who allegedly 19 discriminated against you on the basis of your
20 race or color and who allegedly retaliated against 21 you.

22 Do you see that question?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And in response to that question you
25 provided three names: Ken Caruso, Sheila O'Neil

1 J. Spencer

2 and Brett Marschke; is that right?

3 A. Yes, as listed here.

4 Q. Are you claiming that there's anybody
5 else who discriminated against you on the basis of
6 your race, your color or your sexuality, other
7 than the three people whose names appear here?

8 A. Only the three people whose names
9 appear.

10 Q. Are you claiming that anybody else
11 retaliated against you other than the three people
12 whose names appear here?

13 A. Only the three people that I see here.

14 MS. BLOOM: The videographer needs to
15 change his tape, so we'll take a break.

16 (There was a pause in the proceedings.)

17 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Returning to the
18 record at 11 o'clock from 10:59 at the 19 beginning of tape 2.

20 Q. Now, Ms. Spencer, you reported to 21 Mr. Harper until February of 2005 and then your 22 reporting relationship changed; is that right?

23 A. That's correct, it did change.

24 Q. At that time in February of 2005 you
25 began reporting to Ken Caruso; is that correct?

1 J. Spencer

2 A. I reported to Ken Caruso.

3 Q. At some point in time you stopped
4 reporting to Mr. Caruso and started reporting to 5 Mr. Harper again; is that correct?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And when was that?

8 A. Approximately May of 2000 -- between 9 May and June of 2006.

10 Q. And you continued to report to
11 Mr. Harper until your employment with McGraw-Hill
12 ended; is that right?

13 A. Correction. When I -- there's a
14 correction. I have to go back. I didn't report
15 to Mr. Harper. I reported to Toi Eaton, not
16 Mr. Harper.

17 Q. Did you have any reporting
18 relationship to Mr. Harper?

19 A. No, I did not.

20 Q. And you're not claiming that Toi Eaton
21 discriminated or retaliated against you; isn't
22 that right?

23 A. I'm not claiming that.

24 Q. Prior to the time that your reporting
25 relationship changed in 2005 from your reporting

1 J. Spencer

2 claiming in this case that you had been
3 discriminated against because you are a black
4 woman; is that right?

5 A. That's what I stated.

6 Q. Can you tell me in as much detail as
7 possible all the ways in which you believe you
8 were discriminated against at McGraw-Hill because 9 you are a black female?

10 A. Well, it began when Ken Caruso came on 11 board, and within a couple of months time when he
12 would speak to me in his office he would call me
13 in and refer to women as bitches. He'd say shit
14 and fuck to me at every conversation that he had.

15 Then when I would express to him about
16 other concern, I'd share information about other
17 minority -- other blacks being concerned about how 18 they were treated, he would tell me they should 19 leave.

20 He spoke to me in a very demeaning
21 way. He shooed me out like -- like I was some 22 kind of dog.

23 Then when I complained about him, he
24 began to retaliate against me.

25 He raised his voice.

1 J. Spencer

2 He pointed his finger in my face.

3 He shooed me out.

4 He practically told me to get out at
5 times. When he had a phone call, he told me to 6 just leave.

7 And I made note that he didn't treat
8 any white male or any white female like he treated
9 me, and that was confirmed.

10 Sheila Mitchell also complained about
11 his behavior.

12 Pat France complained, who was the
13 only black department head, that when he came on 14 board that he never -- he went to see all the 15 white males and white female department heads but 16 never saw her.

17 And then when I told him that blacks
18 were concerned, minorities were concerned about
19 how we were treated, he said they should leave,
20 and at that juncture I knew he meant me.

21 He never spoke to me in the morning.

22 And his behavior every time was
23 punitive, punishment.

24 He treated me like I was a worthless
25 person. I might as well have been a dog or a

1 J. Spencer

2 slave. I have never been treated like that at
3 McGraw-Hill by anyone.

4 And being in HR I knew that behavior
5 wasn't normal for an HR person like me reporting
6 to someone.

7 Q. Are there any other ways in which you
8 claim that he discriminated against you?

9 A. He reduced my responsibilities to 10 nothing.

11 He gave me clerical responsibilities.

12 He took away my visibility with my
13 business partners.

14 He told -- he told -- one of the 15 managers told me when I said to her, I don't get
16 to talk to you, I don't get to see you, she says
17 Ken Caruso told her not to come -- told the 18 managers, not the department heads, not to come to 19 me, to go directly to him.

20 I had no job. He took my job away.
21 He had me ordering boxes for people who were rich.

22 He had me going into Lawson and
23 looking up salaries for people, and he had Lawson.

24 He asked me to escort a tenured
25 employee to the Social Security office to find out

1 J. Spencer

2 if we could fix his Social Security adjustments
3 because an error was made way before I came into
4 the company.

5 I might as well have been the nanny.

6 Q. When you say one of the managers told
7 you that Ken Caruso had told them not to go to you
8 but to go to him, who was that manager?

9 A. Sheila DiBiase.

10 Q. Are there any other ways in which you
11 claim Mr. Caruso discriminated against you?

12 A. He took away everything that I had in 13 terms of a job. I was at McGraw-Hill for seven
14 years, for seven years. I worked hard to get 15 there.

16 I had a Master's. I networked. By
17 the time he finished, nobody knew who I was.

18 I sat at a desk every day with little
19 work to do. My managers didn't know I existed,
20 and then he talked about I didn't do my job, I
21 didn't do my work.

22 He took the work away. I couldn't have
23 work. I was nonexistent at McGraw-Hill. Seven
24 years, down the drain. Nothing. I loved my job.
25 I loved -- literally loved my job.

1 J. Spencer

2 Q. Are there any other ways --

3 THE WITNESS: I got to take a break.

4 MS. BLOOM: I'd like her -- I'm sorry,
5 I'd just like her to finish the answer.

6 Q. Are there any other ways in which you
7 claim that Mr. Caruso discriminated against you?

8 A. That is discrimination, alienation,
9 taking everything you have, all your credentials
10 away, that is discrimination.

11 Q. Are there any other ways in which you
12 claim he discriminated against you?

13 A. That's all I can think of for now.

14 Q. Is there anything that would refresh
15 your recollection?

16 A. I can't think of anything for now.

17 MR. SOLOTOFF: We'd like to take that 18 break.

19 Q. Have you finished your answer?

20 MR. SOLOTOFF: She has.

21 MS. BLOOM: I just want to make 22 sure --

23 MR. SOLOTOFF: She has. Counsel,
24 you're abusing her now.

25 MS. BLOOM: No, I'm not.

1 J. Spencer

2 A. Mr. Caruso took all my work-related
3 assets and diminished them to the point where I
4 would be considered a non, barely functioning HR
5 coordinator.

6 He reduced me from a senior HR manager
7 of Business Week to someone who was just about a
8 clerical, and considered it such.

9 My reputation was lost.

10 Q. During the time that you reported to 11 Mr. Caruso, did your grade level change at all?

12 A. No. My grade level didn't change.

13 Q. Did your title change at all?

14 A. My title didn't change.

15 Q. And in terms of your compensation,
16 your compensation increased during the period that
17 you reported to Mr. Caruso; isn't that correct?

18 A. I'm going to say under Mr. Caruso I
19 don't recall him ever having responsibility for 20 giving me an increase. I don't recall it.

21 Q. Do you recall receiving an increase
22 during the period of time that you reported to Mr.
23 Caruso?

24 A. I recall him being there in 2005, and 25 from previous work past that my increase would

1 J. Spencer

2 have been given to me round about the time he was
3 there, but I believe that increase came from
4 Mr. Harper.

5 Q. And so it's your testimony that you
6 got an increase in the year 2005 but you don't
7 attribute that increase to Mr. Caruso?

8 A. I don't recall that. I don't remember
9 Mr. Caruso ever sitting me down and saying to me
10 Jesan Spencer, this is the increase I allotted to 11 you. I just don't recall that.

12 Q. But you do remember you got an
13 increase for the year 2005?

14 A. I do remember I got an increase for 15 the year 2005.

16 Q. And you got an increase for the year
17 2006?

18 A. I guess I did. I don't really recall.

19 Q. When you talked about PMP earlier
20 today, you were talking about the performance
21 reviews that employees would get?

22 A. Performance management process.
23 That's process in which they use to evaluate you.

24 Q. And it would result in actual
25 performance -- a written performance evaluation;

1 J. Spencer

2 isn't that right?

3 A. It would be a written -- yes, you
4 would get a performance evaluation in writing.

5 Q. And you did get a performance
6 evaluation in writing from Mr. Caruso in 2005;
7 isn't that correct?

8 A. I received a performance evaluation
9 from him.

10 Q. Do you remember what the overall
11 rating was on that review?

12 A. Target.

13 Q. And that was the same overall rating
14 that you had gotten the previous year from 15 Mr. Harper, correct?

16 A. Target rating for Mr. Harper as well.

17 Q. The previous year?

18 A. Correct.

19 Q. You said before the break that
20 Mr. Caruso had retaliated against you.

21 What did you mean by your statement
22 that he retaliated against you?

23 A. Well, once I complained about his
24 attitude towards me, that's when I noticed that I
25 wasn't meeting with the department heads. I had

1 J. Spencer

2 very little projects, if any, to do.

3 My phone barely rang. I got no calls,
4 little or no calls from any department heads.

5 And that's when he started giving me
6 more clerical work. That's when he would make --
7 tell the department heads a certain date or
8 certain deadline for information, and then I would
9 know that the dates or the deadlines had changed
10 and I would be considered late, if I had to get 11 information.

12 If he wanted them, for example, to
13 give them ratings pre-PMP ratings for his people
14 before final ratings were in place, he would have
15 me get on the phone and call them to remind them
16 to send them in. Sometimes he asked me to do that 17 two or three times a day. A generalist doesn't 18 call a department head two or three times during
19 the course of the day.

20 When he needed to get some documents
21 I'd say okay, you know, I need the document, you
22 have to have the document to Ken by such and such
23 a date, such and such a time, and they would say
24 that's not what Ken told me. He wouldn't share
25 the information. He kept information to himself,

1 J. Spencer

2 and if he asked me to do something, form, get some
3 information to them, he would give me one date,
4 but their expectation was a different date, so I
5 was the one who looked like I was always late.

6 Q. Are there any other ways in which you
7 claim what Mr. Caruso retaliated against you?

8 A. He didn't share any information. I
9 knew nothing that was going on in Business Week,
10 the business that I was supposed to be supporting,
11 strategies, change in organizational charts,
12 staffing changes, down-sizings.

13 I was out of the loop. I was out of 14 the network.

15 Q. Are there any other ways in which you
16 claim he retaliated against you?

17 A. None that I can think of right now.

18 Q. Now, you said a few minutes ago that
19 he started to retaliate against you once you
20 complained about his attitude.

21 When did you complain about his
22 attitude?

23 A. I started complaining about Ken's
24 attitude towards -- in '05, spring of '05 all the 25 way up to September of '05, September, October of

1 J. Spencer

2 what I told her; those are the things I told her.

3 Q. Did you tell her anything else during
4 this first conversation with her about Mr. Caruso?

5 A. Nothing that I can recall. If I
6 recall anything, I'll just add it in.

7 Q. Now, you said that you spoke to her a
8 total of three or four times about Mr. Caruso.

9 When was the next time?

10 A. I don't recall exact time, but the
11 next time we talked about Mr. Caruso is the time
12 when she called me and she wanted to, I believe,
13 mediate, and I wasn't willing to mediate with 14 Sheila O'Neil.

15 Q. What do you mean she wanted to 16 mediate?

17 A. She wanted to be a person, to sit,
18 like, in the middle and kind of hear, you know,
19 what he had to say, what I had to say, and kind of
20 -- she could help in getting the situation
21 resolved; to build communication she said.

22 Q. So Ms. O'Neil contacted you and said
23 that she wanted to try to build communications
24 between you and Mr. Caruso and you refused to do
25 that?

1 J. Spencer

2 MR. SOLOTOFF: Objection. You're
3 mischaracterizing her testimony.

4 MS. BLOOM: She's fully capable of
5 telling me if that's what I'm doing.

6 MR. SOLOTOFF: That's what you're
7 doing.

8 Q. Ms. Spencer?

9 A. She said to me, I want to build
10 communication. I'd like to meet with you and I'd
11 like to meet with Ken to do my best, in essence,
12 to get the situation, we can -- if we can get the
13 situation resolved -- I can't remember her exact
14 words.

15 Q. And you refused to do that?

16 A. I refused to meet with Sheila O'Neil
17 because she doesn't have a reputation for solving
18 any problems when it comes to minorities.

19 She didn't do it for Marci Brown. She
20 didn't do it for Robin Hicks. She barely did it
21 for Angela King. She didn't do it for Terry
22 Irizarry, a person who worked with her.

23 All she did is when they came to her
24 and told her the problem, she offered them
25 packages.

1 J. Spencer

2 about it.

3 And that's when I told her, based upon
4 my experience and being a generalist and doing
5 employee relations, that when someone exhibits the
6 attitude and behaviors, they're really told, well,
7 whether you did or you didn't, you need to cease
8 and desist, you need to stop.

9 I never heard those words from her.

10 Q. Well, this time when you say she came
11 to you and asked if he was still cursing, can you
12 tell me when in relationship to the first
13 conversation that you had with Ms. O'Neil where 14 you told her about the cursing, the second
15 conversation took place?

16 A. Can you repeat that one more time.

17 Q. You said that Ms. O'Neil was basically
18 following up with you to see if he had stopped
19 cursing.

20 How soon after --

21 A. It was a long time after the initial 22 conversation.

23 Q. Describe -- when you say a long time,
24 how long?

25 A. Probably a couple of months, months.

1 J. Spencer

2 Q. And you told her that he was still
3 cursing?

4 A. He was still cursing.

5 Q. Did he stop cursing at any point in
6 time while you reported to him?

7 A. He stopped cursing -- his cursing
8 continued, but then later on he stopped as I, if I
9 can recall correctly, as I really decided to talk
10 to Sheila about looking for another position, so
11 if I can recall I remember him stopping after I
12 mentioning to her having that conversation with 13 him -- that second conversation with her, that 14 follow-up conversation.

15 Q. I just want to make sure I have the 16 timing right.

17 You talked to Brett Marschke, correct?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And then after that Sheila approached
20 you when you were talking to Sheila's assistant?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And at that time you told Sheila,
23 among other things, about the cursing?

24 A. I told -- not at that time when she
25 approached me. I want to be correct. There was a

1 J. Spencer

2 time that elapsed, and after she came back from
3 her travels, then we had the conversation.

4 Q. And prior to that had you complained
5 to her about Mr. Caruso?

6 A. My first complaint was Brett.

7 Q. So this was the first time that you
8 had spoken to Ms. O'Neil about Mr. Caruso?

9 A. That's correct.

10 Q. And during that first conversation,
11 which was after Ms. O'Neil came back from her
12 travels, one of the things you told her about was 13 Mr. Caruso's cursing?

14 A. I told her whatever I stated,
15 everything that I had to say.

16 Q. And at some point after that, within
17 two months or so --

18 A. Two or three months.

19 Q. -- she followed up with you to see if
20 he had stopped cursing?

21 A. Right.

22 Q. And you told her that he hadn't?

23 A. That he hadn't, and then later on 24 after that he stopped cursing.

25 Q. How long after that did he stop

1 J. Spencer

2 cursing?

3 A. Maybe a month or so. I don't quite
4 recall.

5 Q. And was that, did he stop cursing
6 before or after you complained to Ms. O'Neil about
7 Mr. Caruso scratching his private areas?

8 A. I don't recall.

9 Q. Now, you said that you talked to
10 Ms. O'Neil about looking for another position.

11 When was that?

12 A. Somewhere in -- I'm just trying to
13 think -- oh -- between, I believe it was in '06,
14 '05, end of '05, '06.

15 Q. Was it before or after you complained
16 to Ms. O'Neil about Mr. Caruso scratching his 17 private parts?

18 A. It was probably I think around about
19 maybe the same time.

20 Q. Which came first?

21 A. I don't recall.

22 Q. And had he stopped cursing at that
23 point, "he" being Mr. Caruso?

24 A. There was a point in time that he did
25 stop cursing.

1 J. Spencer

2 Q. When he would curse, was he cursing at
3 you or just cursing in general?

4 A. He would look directly at me and
5 curse.

6 Q. Well, when you say that he used the
7 word "fuck," did he just say the word "fuck" or
8 did he say something else?

9 A. He could be talking about something
10 and say fuck, like I'm looking at you.

11 Q. He never said fuck you, though; is
12 that right?

13 A. He didn't use the word "fuck you."

14 Q. Did you have any other conversations
15 with Ms. O'Neil about Mr. Caruso, other than the 16 ones that you've described to me today?

17 A. None that I can recall.

18 Q. In your answers to interrogatories,
19 which we previously marked as Spencer Exhibit 5,
20 you identified Ms. O'Neil as one of the people who 21 discriminated and/or retaliated against you.

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Can you tell me how Ms. O'Neil or how
24 you believe Ms. O'Neil discriminated against you?

25 A. Well, I'm HR, so that means HR can

1 J. Spencer

2 education.

3 Q. How many interviews had you had?

4 A. Two.

5 Q. The job at BIG, were there any changes
6 in your compensation?

7 A. No changes in my compensation.

8 Q. Any changes in your grade level?

9 A. No changes in the grade level.

10 Q. Any changes in your benefits?

11 A. No changes in my benefits. Changes in 12 my job responsibilities.

13 Q. Were there any jobs that you applied
14 for during your tenure at McGraw-Hill that you
15 didn't get?

16 A. I didn't apply for any jobs. I loved
17 my position with Business Week. If I was going to 18 grow I wanted to grow into something with Business
19 Week, I wanted to grow into Business Week
20 additional responsibilities, additional things,
21 projects to work on; a change in title perhaps, a
22 change in grade level. You can get that all
23 within the same position that you possess.

24 Q. But there were no jobs that you
25 applied for at McGraw-Hill that you did not get,

1 J. Spencer

2 approval of her boss, which was Brett Marschke.

3 Q. With regard to the transfer to BIG,
4 you had gone to Sheila and asked Sheila or told
5 Sheila that you wanted to transfer to another
6 position?

7 A. I told Sheila that I would like the
8 opportunity to look for positions in the
9 McGraw-Hill Companies.

10 Q. And the BIG position was a position
11 within the McGraw-Hill Companies; isn't that 12 correct?

13 A. That was a position she came up with.

14 Q. But it was a position within the
15 McGraw-Hill Companies?

16 A. Yes, it was.

17 Q. Now, this generalist position in
18 education that you were talking about a few
19 minutes ago, what was the grade level of that job?

20 A. That was a grade level 18.

21 Q. So that would have been a grade level
22 below the grade level that you currently had?

23 A. It would have been a grade level
24 below, but I had asked for them to consider a
25 grade level 19, because I know they have done that

1 J. Spencer

2 nationalities that fall under the category of 3 Caucasian.

4 Q. And with regard to any of the whites
5 or other nationalities that fall under the
6 category of Caucasian, were you ever involved in
7 the termination of any of those people?

8 A. Through reductions in force. When
9 they were asked to leave due to poor performance,
10 or attendance issues.

11 Q. When you say that Mr. Caruso reduced
12 your job responsibilities, can you tell me
13 specifically what responsibilities you had that
14 you claim he took away from you?

15 A. Well, I was responsible for all the 16 employee relations issues. They came to a
17 reduction in the sense of the level.

18 I no longer met with department heads.

19 I no longer met with managers.

20 I had no visibility at the department
21 head meetings.

22 He claimed that my involvement was
23 diversity, I wasn't sourcing the correct -- the 24 candidates that were suitable for Business Week.

25 So diversity efforts began to peter

1 J. Spencer

2 out.

3 I used to work with inroads -- could
4 have been involved with inroads, despite someone
5 else taking it over, I believe on the corporate
6 side or in the training department.

7 Q. Someone else took over that
8 responsibility?

9 A. Well, someone else headed it up, but
10 should Business Week had wanted to get an intern,
11 then I would -- I would have been the person
12 instrumental in helping that transpire, and when I
13 talked to him about the possibility of exploring
14 that, he told me they don't need an intern, they 15 are not interested.

16 Q. Did you hire an intern that year?

17 A. When I was working for Ken we didn't
18 work on inroads. He thought that that's something
19 I should not be doing.

20 Q. Are there any other -- I'm sorry --

21 A. I didn't conduct presentations. HR --
22 I didn't conduct HR presentations to the -- to the 23 president and his department heads. That ceased.

24 In other words, I would give them
25 updates on how we were supporting their -- HR was

1 J. Spencer

2 linked to the business and how we were supporting
3 some of their efforts.

4 I no longer was involved in going to
5 the individual department head meetings.

6 I would level jobs -- one of the 7 things I forgot to mention I would level jobs or 8 write position descriptions based upon the 9 manager's request. He would ask me to go to my
10 files, pull out the copies and go behind closed
11 doors and start revising the descriptions and 12 sending them to them.

13 Q. Anything else, any other job duties
14 that you had that he took away from you or you
15 claim he took away from you?

16 A. I used to be on -- there were
17 committees that you could join based upon your
18 manager's recommendation, but I wasn't recommended
19 for any committee. The only committee is when we
20 were doing a video for a new PMP system and then
21 when I went to him and said I'd like to be part of 22 the presentation, because I did sit in with the 23 writers, he chose to stand up in front of the 24 group and present and never even recognized me.
25 Just said thanks to Jesan Spencer and that was

1 J. Spencer

2 about it.

3 Q. Were there any other job duties that
4 you claim you had that he took away from you, "he"
5 being Mr. Caruso?

6 A. Mr. Caruso took away interface. My
7 job was interface with the business units. I
8 didn't have that. That's where my work came from.
9 Employee relations. He did that. I spoke to, I
10 believe the man's name was Howard Mannes, and I
11 said, Howard, for example, Ken Caruso sent me to 12 talk about this employee.

13 He says, I've already spoken to Ken
14 about this.

15 Q. So is it your testimony that
16 Mr. Caruso actually assumed the duties that you
17 used to do?

18 MR. SOLOTOFF: Objection. She didn't
19 say that.

20 A. Mr. Caruso took away my
21 responsibilities. What he did with them was 22 between him and his people. I can't say what he 23 assumed and what he did. I wasn't involved in any 24 of the work where at the end of the year you look
25 at the salary and make sure they fit into a

1 J. Spencer

2 certain curve. I wasn't involved with that. I
3 wasn't involved in the compensation discussions or
4 the reductions in force.

5 Q. Anything else?

6 A. Training became minimal to the extent
7 that he made sure that I knew exactly what he
8 wanted me to say.

9 Q. Anything else?

10 A. That's all I can think of for the 11 moment.

12 MS. BLOOM: The videographer needs to
13 change his tape.

14 MR. SOLOTOFF: Is this a good time to 15 take lunch?

16 MS. BLOOM: How about 20 minutes or
17 so?

18 MR. SOLOTOFF: What time is it now?

19 MS. BLOOM: 20 after 12:00.

20 (Recess taken from 12:26 p.m. until 21 12:30 p.m.)

22 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Returning to the
23 record at 12:31 from 12:26 at the beginning
24 of tape 3.

25 BY MS. BLOOM:

1 J. Spencer

2 every opportunity I could to hear about how -- to
3 listen to how he communicated to white males and
4 white females, and the conversations were so
5 completely different.

6 Even the terms of how he talked to
7 Sheila Mitchell.

8 Q. Did he ever actually call you a bitch?

9 A. Well, he might as well. You say bitch
10 to a person and there's no one else in the room,
11 who else are you talking about?

12 Q. When he used the word "bitches," give
13 me a context, an example of how he used it.

14 A. Those bitches.

15 Q. And to whom was he referring?

16 A. To other women, because he called
17 women bitches.

18 Q. Which women?

19 A. Well, he didn't give me the names.

20 MS. BLOOM: This would be a good time
21 to break for lunch. Thank you very much.
22 Come back in an hour. It's about five of 1
23 right now.

24 (Luncheon recess taken at 12:57 p.m.)

1 J. Spencer

2 Q. What did you do when you got to BIG?

3 A. I met with Toi Eaton.

4 Q. What were your job responsibilities?

5 A. She told me I was going to be -- she
6 wanted me to work on some recruiting issues with 7 the recruiting department. Then there was this
8 group, I don't remember what the group did, but
9 there was this group that dealt with, I believe,
10 some part of outsourcing.

11 I would be meeting with them and
12 meeting with the directors, but I never did
13 because she met with the directors.

14 She wanted me to, since she asked me
15 to bring over any job descriptions that related to
16 Aviation Week because then they would have them,
17 design other jobs for, so she wanted me to design
18 job descriptions.

19 She asked me to do some PMP training.

20 Q. What was your job title?

21 A. Senior manager of human resources for 22 BIG.

23 Q. How long did you stay at BIG?

24 A. I went to BIG between on or about May
25 or June, end of May, beginning of June, and I left

1 J. Spencer

2 in February of 2007, so I started in 2007 and
3 ended in 2007.

4 Q. You started in May or June of 2006 and
5 ended in February of 2007?

6 A. Right, 2006.

7 Q. So about half a year you were there?

8 A. Wait, let me just think. Yes, 2000 --
9 that's correct.

10 Q. During that half a year what job
11 duties did you actually perform?

12 A. I did some research for recruiting
13 group which was -- and gave them a list of
14 organizations to source, candidates for positions
15 in Aviation Week.

16 I, since I didn't have access to
17 Lawson, no one could provide it for me, and I had
18 that at all times, I had to go to Bill's
19 administrative assistant and ask her to look up
20 salaries and titles and levels in order to level
21 jobs that were given me to level.

22 And I also had to spend time getting
23 approval or position numbers for the jobs that
24 were being recruited for.

25 In total, the number PMP sessions I

2 THE WITNESS: Repeat the question,
3 please.

4 (Record read.)

5 A. To my knowledge, he wasn't responsible
6 for anything related to my diversity slate because
7 he had divorced himself from it.

8 Q. Do you know Malin Sellis?

9 A. Malin? Do you have the spelling of 10 the first name?

11 Q. Last name is Sellis, S E L L I S.

12 A. She is a temp that worked for us.

13 Q. What was her race?

14 A. I don't know what her race was, but
15 she -- I don't know what her race was. I didn't 16 ask her.

17 Q. She wasn't African American, though,
18 was she?

19 A. Visually, I don't think so, but you
20 can't judge a person by their color.

21 Q. Do you know whether she ever
22 complained about Mr. Caruso cursing?

23 A. Complained to whom?

24 Q. To anybody at McGraw-Hill.

25 A. Oh, she told Sheila and I about it all

1 J. Spencer

2 the time. Sheila complained about Caruso cursing.

3 Q. So presumably Mr. Caruso cursed in
4 front of Ms. Sellis as well?

5 A. She heard it. She didn't know who he
6 was talking to at the time. When she did complain
7 about it she knew he was talking to me, because I
8 was in there more than she was.

9 Q. But she heard him curse?

10 A. She heard him curse. She even said to 11 me, Jesan, how do you take it?

12 Q. And do you know if he cursed in front
13 of her?

14 A. I have no idea.

15 Q. I'd like to go back to Exhibit 5, your
16 answers to interrogatories, please.

17 If you look at interrogatory No. 10
18 and your answer to that interrogatory, this is the 19 one that identifies Patricia Kuusisto.

20 Can you tell me what other doctors
21 you've been to see besides her from December 1997
22 to the present?

23 A. None.

24 Q. None?

25 A. No doctors.

1 J. Spencer

2 had everything to do with what my work
3 responsibilities had dribbled down to.

4 Q. So you just weren't satisfied with
5 your job duties?

6 A. I couldn't sit at my desk and twiddle
7 my thumbs and be a clerical.

8 Q. Where did you look for work?

9 A. I went to the New York Times. I went
10 to search firms. I called my contacts in banking
11 to see if they knew someone that was looking for
12 someone who would be interested in doing
13 generalist work, whether it be recruiting,
14 training and development.

15 Q. Did you actually go on any interviews?

16 A. Did I go on interviews?

17 Q. Yes.

18 A. No. I used my network and at the time
19 there was nothing available.

20 Q. At any time since you left McGraw-Hill
21 have you been on a job interview?

22 A. Since I left McGraw-Hill?

23 Q. Right.

24 A. If you recall, I, months later,
25 started my own business.

1 J. Spencer

2 Q. Well, have you been on any job
3 interviews?

4 A. I haven't been on any job interviews.

5 Q. What made you start your own business?

6 A. Because I had to work. I had nothing
7 to do. Everything I had was taken away from me.
8 I didn't know where to begin.

9 Q. Nobody at McGraw-Hill asked you to 10 leave; isn't that right?

11 A. While I was where? At --

12 Q. The last job that you held at
13 McGraw-Hill was at BIG; is that correct?

14 A. Correct.

15 Q. And nobody told you that they wanted
16 you to leave the company, did they?

17 A. They didn't have to ask me to leave.
18 The way I was treated was enough. They gave me no
19 job, nothing to do, twiddling my thumbs, walking
20 out, taking walks around the block and walks
21 around the block.

22 That's enough to tell you to leave.
23 They don't have to say so. All they do is have to 24 say put her in Siberia in the back, give her
25 nothing to do. She'll leave. Because, you know

1 J. Spencer

2 that I have and the whole list of jobs that I had
3 leveled since I had been with the McGraw-Hill
4 Companies that I shipped over and I put them in 5 order, so if anyone wanted to look at them they
6 were categorized by grade level, they were
7 categorized by title, and that took a while to do.

8 I didn't want anyone to say that I
9 left and I left work behind for them to do.

10 Q. How long did it take you, or to finish
11 up all the work that you were doing?

12 A. Well, I was there for full days. It
13 wasn't like half day here and half day here. I
14 worked like I normally would do, what was expected
15 of me.

16 Q. And you devoted all your time to 17 finishing things up?

18 A. I devoted my time to finishing things
19 up. There wasn't anything else for me to do.
20 There was no work.

21 Q. Did you submit a formal resignation
22 letter?

23 A. I did not submit a formal resignation
24 letter.

25 Q. Had you made a decision to open your

1 J. Spencer

2 own business at the time that you left
3 McGraw-Hill?

4 A. All my life I made a decision to open
5 my own business. They talk about that in
6 McGraw-Hill, people opening their own business. I
7 mean, that's a goal, that was a wonderful goal to 8 try to accomplish.

9 Q. So opening your own business was a
10 goal of yours for your entire life?

11 A. Well, it's something that I thought
12 about, I entertained. My grandmother owned her
13 own business.

14 Q. Are you enjoying owning your own
15 business?

16 A. I don't know. I haven't thought about
17 it yet. I'm too busy dealing with this.

18 Q. When you say "too busy dealing with 19 this," what are you talking about?

20 A. Well, I'm here, this is where my time
21 is today. It's not in my business.

22 Q. Other than the time that you spent
23 here today, how much time have you spent dealing
24 with this lawsuit?

25 A. I think about it. I realized I had a
